

LATEST FOREIGN NEWS.

The Senate of States. So, President May 4—A large number of persons known to be Nihilist or suspected of communism are the other members without exception. A very large number of auxiliary offices have been arrested on the charge of being connected with the movement of General Sartoris.

French Legation between France and Morocco are negotiating through the medium of the government of Morocco to dislodge the French Legation. It is at the demand of the French Legation. The French Legation has landed down its flag.

The twenty-second anniversary of the defeat of the French army by the Marquess of Peshawar, who succeeded May 4th, with much display. There were 3000 soldiers, Departmental militia and Government officials and school children in the procession.

New York, May 4.—Kings's affairs are badly involved. It is doubtful if he can remain or settle with his creditors except at a large discount. The losses since January last year are estimated at $100,000.

During the sojourn at Darmstadt of Queen Victoria, Emperor of Germany and His Majesties, the King of Prussia, King of Bavaria, King of Wurtemberg, the Emperor's staff conveyed the message to the Queen.

The big organ, in Music Hall, which for years has been one of the features for such events in Boston, has been sold to the New England Conservatory of Music.

A telegraphic announcement reached arrival at Yokohama, Japan, May 4th, that Captain Morris and crew of the ship "Rambler" had been captured on one of the Marshall Islands in the Pacific.

Kansas City, Mo., May 4.—A Journal correspondent, Mr. Clegg, says: "The arrival of Charlie Ford has created quite a stir in this community. He was temporarily at his father's near home. Early this afternoon he went to his room, and soon after came out again, and was seen with a forty pound weight through his belt, and a forty-five caliber pistol lying beside him."

Turkey, May 4th.—Orthodox missionary James Sonder writes in the Protestant Correspondent that every one in that region is impressed with the execution of Herber, and unless and unless the Sultan shall pardon, a similar fate awaits Asanoff, all Egypt would be stirred to the depths.

Cambodia, May 4.—An appeal offered by El Machi demands $200,000 ransom for General Gond, the sum to be paid to El Machi, within three months.

Washington, May 4.—The revenue reformers were defeated in the House to day, the existing statute of 1880, under which oil was taxed out of a sum of $100 to $1000, was made the basis for the next revenue measure, and no reduction or adjustment of Congress by Alice was probable, and overthrew the Democratic programme for a Protectionist campaign on the free trade principle. The bill, however, did not win the Republicans to their side, the opposing votes of the bill, and four Republicans, Sulzer, White, Smith and Wakefield of Minnesota, saved the Democrats to further consider the measure, and two Republicans, Anderson and Jones, who were to vote with the bill, returned to the party-field and voted against it, thus defeating the existing clause.

New York, May 4.—The Marine National Bank, J. D. Fish president, has closed its doors. One year ago the bank purchased Booth's Theatre. The Chancery Court is holding the suspension. It is to be held in the same on a plenary.

The firm of Kuhn & Weiss, well known, announced their closing because of the failure of the Marine Bank. The firm is composed of General C. S. Kuhn, James D. Fish, U. S. Grant, Jr., and Frank W. Kuhn.

A gun forty feet long, weighing 20,000 pounds, and costing $25,000, has been cast at the foundry works for the Government.

There are said to be dissensions among the Chinese and Black Flags, and important fighting between them is imminent, and likely.

Fairfax, Virginia, May 4.—The commanding general from Glendale, goes toward the coasting. He has on board 26 of the crew of the secession State of Florida, that vessel having been sunk by collision with a bark in mid-ocean. Out of 100 persons in the State of Florida, only 44 were saved, and of these 20 were lost. The 44 survivors were saved, 12 miles westward, with the gunner and 12 with the bark, making a total of 15. The survivors will probably be landed at Quebec.

Glasgow, May 4.—A number of American crews are outside the offices of the State Line of steamers, awaiting the arrival of the news of the capture of the State of Florida. The crews are mostly citizens of the cities of the state, so many of whom are residents of this city, are heart-breaking. The wife of the commanding officer is severely ill from the shock received.

New York, May 4.—The World's cable from London says: "London, May 4.—The English periodical press has published the names of so much greater has suddenly made his appearance in England without his name, and on the evening of the 3rd of Queen Victoria, as Windsor Castle. He received the Majority from London yesterday. The Queen's recovery was the first instead of trying to wean him from the London widow by bringing him to Windsor, and placing him under the influence of Beaufort.

The Queen has just settled the accounts sum of £20,000 on the young heir of Lord Bute.

Washington, May 4.—The sleeping bill presented to the Senate provides that all expenses of United States vessels shall be American enlisted. Tonnage dues are abolished as to American vessels, and as to vessels of other nations, which do not impose tonnage dues under the name of "light money," or other name, the amount of the dues per ton per annum is to be imposed on every vessel, and the payment is to be made to the American government.

The Marine Hospital act is abolished, and the expense of maintaining such hospitals devolved on the United States. When vessel is built in the United States for foreign service, which or part of the cost of construction, and the cost of foreign materials, or which the imported goods have been paid, the amount of duty, less one per cent, is allowed as a drawback, which the vessel is exported. The land-money tax is abolished, and applied to vessels trading in Canadian ports.

For foreign vessels trading between the ports of the United States and any foreign port, or between ports on the Atlantic and ports on the Pacific trading at foreign ports, a sum not exceeding $2 per ton, or each ton, for each national and foreign vessel, and the same is to be paid after legal accounting, and contract with the most responsible bidder, the aggregate of the expenditures for said services not to exceed the gross revenues foreign and domestic for the year preceding the contract, the amount paid for the first year, and the amount paid for the second year, and the amount paid for the third year, and the amount paid for foreign contributions. Ships with which such contracts are made shall be of American registry, and contracts shall be for terms not less than four nor more than five years.

The bill also provides that the amount of the fee to be paid to steam vessels of $100 per ton, or under, for the importation fees, in addition to the amount allowed by law for issuing certificates and licenses.

New York, May 4.—Senate Bill, No. 2, passed by the Senate provides that all expenses of United States vessels shall be American enlisted. Tonnage dues are abolished as to American vessels, and as to vessels of other nations, which do not impose tonnage dues under the name of "light money," or other name, the amount of the dues per ton per annum is to be imposed on every vessel, and the payment is to be made to the American government.

The Marine Hospital act is abolished, and the expense of maintaining such hospitals devolved on the United States. When vessel is built in the United States for foreign service, which or part of the cost of construction, and the cost of foreign materials, or which the imported goods have been paid, the amount of duty, less one per cent, is allowed as a drawback, which the vessel is exported. The land-money tax is abolished, and applied to vessels trading in Canadian ports.

For foreign vessels trading between the ports of the United States and any foreign port, or between ports on the Atlantic and ports on the Pacific trading at foreign ports, a sum not exceeding $2 per ton, or each ton, for each national and foreign vessel, and the same is to be paid after legal accounting, and contract with the most responsible bidder, the aggregate of the expenditures for said services not to exceed the gross revenues foreign and domestic for the year preceding the contract, the amount paid for the first year, and the amount paid for the second year, and the amount paid for the third year, and the amount paid for foreign contributions. Ships with which such contracts are made shall be of American registry, and contracts shall be for terms not less than four nor more than five years.

The bill also provides that the amount of the fee to be paid to steam vessels of $100 per ton, or under, for the importation fees, in addition to the amount allowed by law for issuing certificates and licenses.

New York, May 4.—Senate Bill, No. 2, passed by the Senate provides that all expenses of United States vessels shall be American enlisted. Tonnage dues are abolished as to American vessels, and as to vessels of other nations, which do not impose tonnage dues under the name of "light money," or other name, the amount of the dues per ton per annum is to be imposed on every vessel, and the payment is to be made to the American government.

The Marine Hospital act is abolished, and the expense of maintaining such hospitals devolved on the United States. When vessel is built in the United States for foreign service, which or part of the cost of construction, and the cost of foreign materials, or which the imported goods have been paid, the amount of duty, less one per cent, is allowed as a drawback, which the vessel is exported. The land-money tax is abolished, and applied to vessels trading in Canadian ports.

For foreign vessels trading between the ports of the United States and any foreign port, or between ports on the Atlantic and ports on the Pacific trading at foreign ports, a sum not exceeding $2 per ton, or each ton, for each national and foreign vessel, and the same is to be paid after legal accounting, and contract with the most responsible bidder, the aggregate of the expenditures for said services not to exceed the gross revenues foreign and domestic for the year preceding the contract, the amount paid for the first year, and the amount paid for the second year, and the amount paid for the third year, and the amount paid for foreign contributions. Ships with which such contracts are made shall be of American registry, and contracts shall be for terms not less than four nor more than five years.

The bill also provides that the amount of the fee to be paid to steam vessels of $100 per ton, or under, for the importation fees, in addition to the amount allowed by law for issuing certificates and licenses.

New York, May 4.—Senate Bill, No. 2, passed by the Senate provides that all expenses of United States vessels shall be American enlisted. Tonnage dues are abolished as to American vessels, and as to vessels of other nations, which do not impose tonnage dues under the name of "light money," or other name, the amount of the dues per ton per annum is to be imposed on every vessel, and the payment is to be made to the American government.

The Marine Hospital act is abolished, and the expense of maintaining such hospitals devolved on the United States. When vessel is built in the United States for foreign service, which or part of the cost of construction, and the cost of foreign materials, or which the imported goods have been paid, the amount of duty, less one per cent, is allowed as a drawback, which the vessel is exported. The land-money tax is abolished, and applied to vessels trading in Canadian ports.

For foreign vessels trading between the ports of the United States and any foreign port, or between ports on the Atlantic and ports on the Pacific trading at foreign ports, a sum not exceeding $2 per ton, or each ton, for each national and foreign vessel, and the same is to be paid after legal accounting, and contract with the most responsible bidder, the aggregate of the expenditures for said services not to exceed the gross revenues foreign and domestic for the year preceding the contract, the amount paid for the first year, and the amount paid for the second year, and the amount paid for the third year, and the amount paid for foreign contributions. Ships with which such contracts are made shall be of American registry, and contracts shall be for terms not less than four nor more than five years.

The bill also provides that the amount of the fee to be paid to steam vessels of $100 per ton, or under, for the importation fees, in addition to the amount allowed by law for issuing certificates and licenses.

Hawaiian Gazette Supplement, May 21

The Senate of States.

So, President May 4—A large number of persons known to be Nihilist or suspected of communism are the other members without exception. A very large number of auxiliary offices have been arrested on the charge of being connected with the movement of General Sartoris.

French Legation between France and Morocco are negotiating through the medium of the government of Morocco to dislodge the French Legation. It is at the demand of the French Legation. The French Legation has landed down its flag.

The twenty-second anniversary of the defeat of the French army by the Marquess of Peshawar, who succeeded May 4th, with much display. There were 3000 soldiers, Departmental militia and Government officials and school children in the procession.

New York, May 4.—Kings's affairs are badly involved. It is doubtful if he can remain or settle with his creditors except at a large discount. The losses since January last year are estimated at $100,000.

During the sojourn at Darmstadt of Queen Victoria, Emperor of Germany and His Majesties, the King of Prussia, King of Bavaria, King of Wurtemberg, the Emperor's staff conveyed the message to the Queen.

The big organ, in Music Hall, which for years has been one of the features for such events in Boston, has been sold to the New England Conservatory of Music.

A telegraphic announcement reached arrival at Yokohama, Japan, May 4th, that Captain Morris and crew of the ship "Rambler" had been captured on one of the Marshall Islands in the Pacific.

Kansas City, Mo., May 4.—A Journal correspondent, Mr. Clegg, says: "The arrival of Charlie Ford has created quite a stir in this community. He was temporarily at his father's near home. Early this afternoon he went to his room, and soon after came out again, and was seen with a forty pound weight through his belt, and a forty-five caliber pistol lying beside him."

Turkey, May 4th.—An appeal offered by El Machi demands $200,000 ransom for General Gond, the sum to be paid to El Machi, within three months.

Washington, May 4.—The revenue reformers were defeated in the House to day, the existing statute of 1880, under which oil was taxed out of a sum of $100 to $1000, was made the basis for the next revenue measure, and no reduction or adjustment of Congress by Alice was probable, and overthrew the Democratic programme for a Protectionist campaign on the free trade principle. The bill, however, did not win the Republicans to their side, the opposing votes of the bill, and four Republicans, Sulzer, White, Smith and Wakefield of Minnesota, saved the Democrats to further consider the measure, and two Republicans, Anderson and Jones, who were to vote with the bill, returned to the party-field and voted against it, thus defeating the existing clause.

New York, May 4.—The Marine National Bank, J. D. Fish president, has closed its doors. One year ago the bank purchased Booth's Theatre. The Chancery Court is holding the suspension. It is to be held in the same on a plenary.

The firm of Kuhn & Weiss, well known, announced their closing because of the failure of the Marine Bank. The firm is composed of General C. S. Kuhn, James D. Fish, U. S. Grant, Jr., and Frank W. Kuhn.

A gun forty feet long, weighing 20,000 pounds, and costing $25,000, has been cast at the foundry works for the Government.

There are said to be dissensions among the Chinese and Black Flags, and important fighting between them is imminent, and likely.

Fairfax, Virginia, May 4.—The commanding general from Glendale, goes toward the coasting. He has on board 26 of the crew of the secession State of Florida, that vessel having been sunk by collision with a bark in mid-ocean. Out of 100 persons in the State of Florida, only 44 were saved, and of these 12 miles westward, with the gunner and 12 with the bark, making a total of 15. The survivors will probably be landed at Quebec.

Glasgow, May 4.—A number of American crews are outside the offices of the State Line of steamers, awaiting the arrival of the news of the capture of the State of Florida, the vessel having been sunk by collision with a bark in mid-ocean. Out of 100 persons in the State of Florida, only 44 were saved, and of these 12 miles westward, with the gunner and 12 with the bark, making a total of 15. The survivors will probably be landed at Quebec.

New York, May 4.—The World's cable from London says: "London, May 4.—The English periodical press has published the names of so much greater has suddenly made his appearance in England without his name, and on the evening of the 3rd of Queen Victoria, as Windsor Castle. He received the Majority from London yesterday. The Queen's recovery was the first instead of trying to wean him from the London widow by bringing him to Windsor, and placing him under the influence of Beaufort.

The Queen has just settled the accounts sum of £20,000 on the young heir of Lord Bute.

Washington, May 4.—The sleeping bill presented to the Senate provides that all expenses of United States vessels shall be American enlisted. Tonnage dues are abolished as to American vessels, and as to vessels of other nations, which do not impose tonnage dues under the name of "light money," or other name, the amount of the dues per ton per annum is to be imposed on every vessel, and the payment is to be paid to the American government.

The Marine Hospital act is abolished, and the expense of maintaining such hospitals devolved on the United States. When vessel is built in the United States for foreign service, which or part of the cost of construction, and the cost of foreign materials, or which the imported goods have been paid, the amount of duty, less one per cent, is allowed as a drawback, which the vessel is exported. The land-money tax is abolished, and applied to vessels trading in Canadian ports.

For foreign vessels trading between the ports of the United States and any foreign port, or between ports on the Atlantic and ports on the Pacific trading at foreign ports, a sum not exceeding $2 per ton, or each ton, for each national and foreign vessel, and the same is to be paid after legal accounting, and contract with the most responsible bidder, the aggregate of the expenditures for said services not to exceed the gross revenues foreign and domestic for the year preceding the contract, the amount paid for the first year, and the amount paid for the second year, and the amount paid for the third year, and the amount paid for foreign contributions. Ships with which such contracts are made shall be of American registry, and contracts shall be for terms not less than four nor more than five years.

The bill also provides that the amount of the fee to be paid to steam vessels of $100 per ton, or under, for the importation fees, in addition to the amount allowed by law for issuing certificates and licenses.

New York, May 4.—The sleeping bill presented to the Senate provides that all expenses of United States vessels shall be American enlisted. Tonnage dues are abolished as to American vessels, and as to vessels of other nations, which do not impose tonnage dues under the name of "light money," or other name, the amount of the dues per ton per annum is to be imposed on every vessel, and the payment is to be paid to the American government.

The Marine Hospital act is abolished, and the expense of maintaining such hospitals devolved on the United States. When vessel is built in the United States for foreign service, which or part of the cost of construction, and the cost of foreign materials, or which the imported goods have been paid, the amount of duty, less one per cent, is allowed as a drawback, which the vessel is exported. The land-money tax is abolished, and applied to vessels trading in Canadian ports.

For foreign vessels trading between the ports of the United States and any foreign port, or between ports on the Atlantic and ports on the Pacific trading at foreign ports, a sum not exceeding $2 per ton, or each ton, for each national and foreign vessel, and the same is to be paid after legal accounting, and contract with the most responsible bidder, the aggregate of the expenditures for said services not to exceed the gross revenues foreign and domestic for the year preceding the contract, the amount paid for the first year, and the amount paid for the second year, and the amount paid for the third year, and the amount paid for foreign contributions. Ships with which such contracts are made shall be of American registry, and contracts shall be for terms not less than four nor more than five years.

The bill also provides that the amount of the fee to be paid to steam vessels of $100 per ton, or under, for the importation fees, in addition to the amount allowed by law for issuing certificates and licenses.

New York, May 4.—The sleeping bill presented to the Senate provides that all expenses of United States vessels shall be American enlisted. Tonnage dues are abolished as to American vessels, and as to vessels of other nations, which do not impose tonnage dues under the name of "light money," or other name, the amount of the dues per ton per annum is to be imposed on every vessel, and the payment is to be paid to the American government.

The Marine Hospital act is abolished, and the expense of maintaining such hospitals devolved on the United States. When vessel is built in the United States for foreign service, which or part of the cost of construction, and the cost of foreign materials, or which the imported goods have been paid, the amount of duty, less one per cent, is allowed as a drawback, which the vessel is exported. The land-money tax is abolished, and applied to vessels trading in Canadian ports.

For foreign vessels trading between the ports of the United States and any foreign port, or between ports on the Atlantic and ports on the Pacific trading at foreign ports, a sum not exceeding $2 per ton, or each ton, for each national and foreign vessel, and the same is to be paid after legal accounting, and contract with the most responsible bidder, the aggregate of the expenditures for said services not to exceed the gross revenues foreign and domestic for the year preceding the contract, the amount paid for the first year, and the amount paid for the second year, and the amount paid for the third year, and the amount paid for foreign contributions. Ships with which such contracts are made shall be of American registry, and contracts shall be for terms not less than four nor more than five years.

The bill also provides that the amount of the fee to be paid to steam vessels of $100 per ton, or under, for the importation fees, in addition to the amount allowed by law for issuing certificates and licenses.

New York, May 4.—The sleeping bill presented to the Senate provides that all expenses of United States vessels shall be American enlisted. Tonnage dues are abolished as to American vessels, and as to vessels of other nations, which do not impose tonnage dues under the name of "light money," or other name, the amount of the dues per ton per annum is to be imposed on every vessel, and the payment is to be paid to the American government.

The Marine Hospital act is abolished, and the expense of maintaining such hospitals devolved on the United States. When vessel is built in the United States for foreign service, which or part of the cost of construction, and the cost of foreign materials, or which the imported goods have been paid, the amount of duty, less one per cent, is allowed as a drawback, which the vessel is exported. The land-money tax is abolished, and applied to vessels trading in Canadian ports.

For foreign vessels trading between the ports of the United States and any foreign port, or between ports on the Atlantic and ports on the Pacific trading at foreign ports, a sum not exceeding $2 per ton, or each ton, for each national and foreign vessel, and the same is to be paid after legal accounting, and contract with the most responsible bidder, the aggregate of the expenditures for said services not to exceed the gross revenues foreign and domestic for the year preceding the contract, the amount paid for the first year, and the amount paid for the second year, and the amount paid for the third year, and the amount paid for foreign contributions. Ships with which such contracts are made shall be of American registry, and contracts shall be for terms not less